

Theresa Bounds

September 3, 1926

Theresa Shoupe Bounds was born September 3, 1926 in Cottondale, Florida (Jackson County). She departed this life at the age of 82 to be with her Lord on February 27, 2009 after several years of being house bound. She was preceded in death by her parents Jefferson Davis and Saluma Campbell Shoupe. She is survived by her husband of fifty years, John H. Bounds of Huntsville, TX, her sisters, Elaine Carroll and Eleanor Holley of Jacksonville, Florida, Coral Sue Lewis of Enterprise, Alabama, and sister-in-law Betty Shoupe from Black Mountain, North Carolina. She leaves a large number of much loved cousins, nieces, nephews, fellow co-workers and friends. She was a college graduate of the Bixby Business College in St. Petersburg, Florida and for many years worked in that city for her uncle's business. She also took courses at Sam Houston State University in Huntsville Texas. She was employed at the Walker Bros Lumber Company for about thirty years. She was a skilled legal secretary and was employed in various states. One employer was the Legal Aid Clinic, Law College, University of Tennessee, Knoxville. At First Baptist Church, Huntsville, Texas, she loved her church family and taught an Older Ladies Sunday school class for about twenty-five years. Many thanks need to be given for several years of work to her home health nurses: Tara Adams, Peggy Bradford, Debbie Thomas, and many others at the Emergency Room and Intensive Care Unit at Huntsville Memorial Hospital, the doctors and nurses that gave very loving and superior service in her last few days of life. Memorial Donations may be made in her name to First Baptist Church, Huntsville, Texas. Services and burial will be held in Jackson County, Florida at the Pilgrims Rest Cemetery, Northwest of Cottondale and west of Mariana, Florida. Those wishing to leave memorial condolences for the family may do so at www.shmfh.com.
