“ I worked for Clarence my first job out of college in 1976 at Westwood Shores. And kind of got to know the family. But I got reacquainted with Thomas when he came to work at Ellis Wood Shop. I really enjoyed spending time talking deer hunting and about his family and what was going on in yalls lives. I prayed for him as he underwent all the treatments for his first bout with cancer and kept him in my prayers after I lost track of him when the shop closed. I am deeply saddened by his passing and know heaven is a better place for him being there. Thomas was a good man and an inspiration to us all as he fought the fight and kept such a postive winning attitude. God bless you all in your time of grieving. Freddy Koehl
