“ Tom was a good friend. He always seemed happy and had a good sense of humor. I have known Tom for 20 years. We first met working for Anthony and Sylvan Pools. We stayed in touch over the years and even enjoyed a few jam sessions playing our guitars. You will be missed my friend. God Bless You and Your Family.
Sincerely,
John Little

“ Tom was the first kid I met at KMS, he introduced himself in homeroom and we continued to be friends throughout high school. In the last year, we had been debating Les Pauls and Telecasters and discussing more important things. He sure loved his family and liked Les Pauls. I'll never forget him. My condolences to Tom's family.

“ Tommy was an athletic, musical, adventurous, funny little brother. Once he was an adult he became a perfect gentlemen to us, his sisters. He was the kindest most thoughtful guy I've ever known. I always hated that we live so far apart these later years but we kept in very close contact. My heart breaks for Holli and the kids. My entire family is just heartbroken and our family will forever be broken. His battle with cancer was hard but also Swift. We didn't think we'd lose him in one year after diagnosis. He fought this monster hard and he never complained. He often told me "I'm gonna beat this, no worries." And for time it seemed like he would. He was getting better, he was feeling better, sounding better. But then cancer took him. RIP little brother. You are forever in my heart and I am so thankful for the 52 years I did have you.

“ Tom had an infectious smile that would light up the room. He was genuinely kind to everyone around him. I looked up to him like an older brother when I was younger. He was one of the good guys. Condolences to the Hawkins family. So sorry for your loss.
