“ I have just belatedly learned of my friend Tom's passing. I am so very sorry for your loss. He was a friend I loved and a musician I had tremendous respect for. In 1987 Tom gave the first performance of fourteen of my original art songs with me at the piano at the University of Houston. This was a performance I will never forget and somewhere you should have a recording of the concert. I am just completing a new song cycle of twenty-two songs on poems of Carl Sandburg that I had written especially for Tom. In searching for new contact information I was so very shocked to find his obituary. I hope one day to perform this work in his memory. It would be lovely to hear from you. I can be reached at gslewis1@verizon.net. Sincerely, Gary Scott Lewis
