

Thomas Hilbert Nitschmann

October 11, 1954 - February 16, 2025

The Lord called Thomas Hilbert Nitschmann to his heavenly home on February 16, 2025, at the age of 70. He was born in Houston, TX on October 11, 1954, and he left us here on earth to go our heavenly Father. Tommy resided in Huntsville, TX for over 50 years. He was a meat market manager for Safeway many years, then he went to work and retired from Windham School District, as a vocational teacher. He then became an avid junker in the world of antiques and collectables and opened their business A Nitsch in Time. He was a mighty man with unshakeable faith and a firm believer in Jesus Christ, and spending time with his family.

Tommy was preceded in death by his parents Hilbert Otto (Sonny) Nitschmann and Dora Lanell Nitschmann. He is survived by his wife of 34 years, Kathleen Marie Nitschmann; daughter Misty Michelle Collazo and husband James; daughter Marissa Nicole Nitschmann and husband Aomalo Su'e Su'e; son Thomas Joseph Nitschmann; son Brian Gilbert Thomas and wife Kim; daughter Tracey Lynn Miller and spouse Mike Sweeton; grandchildren Elisha Collazo, Seven Su'e Su'e, Israel Collazo, Story Su'e Su'e, Arianna Nitschmann, Sovereign Fatu Nitschmann Su'e Su'e, Bryson Miller and Tori Stanley, and one great grandchild Sutton Stanley. He is also survived by his sisters Linda French Jamieson and Sandra Bradley, and numerous brother and sister in laws, nieces and nephews, cousins and life-long friends.

Tommy was loved by so many and will be greatly missed by all his family and friends.

Visitations will be held at Family Faith church in Huntsville, TX, on Saturday February 22, 2025, at 9:30am and services to follow at 10:30am. He will be laid to rest at Brooke Cemetery in Huntsville, TX. Memorial condolences may be made to the family at www.shmfh.com.
