“ May you find comfort in the memories that are yours to cherish always, and strength in the companionship of those who share your loss.... I have learned never to underestimate the healing power we all have. It is always there to be used for the highest good. Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted. (Matthew 5:4) May it be a source of inner strength to know that there's a loving God watching over you, and that, throughout this time of need, He'll stay close by your side. All those sleeping in their graves will wake up and sing for joy. As the sparkling dew refreshes the earth, so the Lord will revive those who have long been dead."-Isa. 26:19.

“ Deborah, I can't tell you how shocked and saddened I was to learn of Tom's passing. I have lost one of my dearest friends! I have such good memories of Tom...all the noon time lunches and the walks in the park...and especially Friday's when we would walk down to Tony's for that hugh hoggie! Tom was always there to listen to your stories. We shared a lot of good times together. I will keep Tom and you in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Debra

I am so saddened by Tom's passing. He was so happy to be retiring and moving to your new home in Texas. He was a kind and thoughtful person and someone I relied on for good, sage advice. He never steered me wrong. My prayers are with you.

“ Dear Deb: My thoughts are with you are this awful time. Tom was very good to me when I was just starting at Lutheran. He welcomed me onto the football team, he was always gracious to me throughout the day, and in the years to follow, he was always a positive spark in any reunion events. I have so many good memories of Tom, his family, and our times together at Lutheran High School. I am grateful for Tom, his life, and for you. How can I be of help to you during this time of shock and mourning? Please do not hesitate to let me know! Chris Thomforde thatald

“ Deb,

So glad I had a chance to talk with you. Tom was a good friend, and a special person--as I said on the phone, he was one of life's "truly honest people," he lived it, and many of us relied on him for it. It meant the world to me to have him as a friend, and I can't even begin to describe what it meant to have Tom's respect--he did not waste that special gift. I cannot possibly tell you how sad I am (as are many others at Sunoco) that we will not again hear his wonderful chuckle, especially when he encountered something that, well, "just doesn't make sense," as he would have said. I treasure having had him as a friend.
