Joe and Phillip were the first neighbors to welcome us to the neighborhood with smiles. I enjoyed listening to his childhood stories. He loved his children whole hearted. I will miss our visits sitting on his porch talking about everything. RIP my friend. You are and will continue to be missed. ❤️

“ My friend Joe and I began a journey of friendship beginning in second grade and it continued for more than seventy plus years. Joe was always kind and loving, but foremost, he was a gentleman. Joe had endured a lot of losses this past year and that had been hard on him. He told me that he was really tired and weak and ready to call it quits. I know that now he is happy and at peace. I loved Joe and I am going to miss his phone calls and visits. Rest easy my dear friend and remember that a lot of people are going to miss you.
