

Tommy Falco

October 14, 1929 - December 31, 2014

Tommy Falco, born October 14, 1929, in Burleson County, Texas, passed away on Wednesday, December 31, 2014, in St. Luke's Hospital at The Woodlands. He is survived by his wife of forty-one years, Christine Falco; his son-in-law, Bill Smith; his grandsons, John Bartula and Chad Anthony Falco; and his granddaughter Christy Watson. He had eight great-grandchildren and many friends and neighbors. His two children, Mary Anne Smith and Anthony (Tony) Falco, had predeceased him in death.

Tommy was a devoted husband and father. He was a lifetime resident of the Houston-Conroe area. Tommy managed the North Shepherd Bowling Lanes in Houston and was general manager of Crosstimbers Shopping Center for many years. Upon his retirement he moved to Trinity on Lake Livingston and from there to Willis, Texas. He was passionate about both bowling and golfing. One of his favorite pastimes was making golf clubs and martin birdhouses for his friends and family. He could often be seen sitting in his favorite chair outside visiting with his neighbors. Tommy will be greatly missed.

There will be visitation and viewing at Sam Houston Memorial Funeral Home on Hwy 1097, Willis, TX, Friday, January 2, 2015 from 6:00 to 8:00 P.M. with Rosary at 7:00. Funeral services will be held at St. Joseph Catholic Church in New Waverly, TX, on January 3, 2015, at 11:00 A.M. Pall bearers will be Roy Smith, Louis Pevateaux, Adrian Martinez, and Shane Lapaglia.
