

Tony Brumley

April 4, 1953 - August 4, 2023

Tony Lamar Brumley, age 70, resident of Willis, TX., sadly gained his heavenly wings on August 4, 2023.

Tony is preceded in death by his father Ray Brumley and his brother Randy Brumley.

Tony is survived by his mother, Pauline Brumley of Riverside, TX, brothers Daryl Brumley and Ray Allen Brumley, sister-in-law Vera Brumley of Conroe TX.

Tony had 3 children, son Ryan Brumley, Daughters Shana Brumley and Kayla Rucker, son in law Ronny Rucker, grandkids Kami & Rylan Rucker of Montgomery, TX., 13 nieces and nephews and numerous cousins.

Tony was brought into this life by his parents Ray & Pauline Brumley on April 4, 1953 in Conroe, TX.

At an early age Tony had a special love for sports, especially boxing and baseball.

He was fearless and by the age of 13 a golden glove boxer.

Tony graduated from Conroe High School in 1971 and worked for the family business in Riverside TX.

Making and building many lifelong friendships down through the years Tony settled down in Willis TX after retiring from the family business.

He loved to hunt, dance, play pool, a highly competitive dart and dominoes player.

He loved to have a good time and never turned down a chance to be in a social atmosphere.

It is with very heavy and broken hearts that we journey this new road without him.

We'll see you on the other side...

Visitation will be Thursday August 10th at 11:00am followed by a service at 12:00pm at Sam Houston Memorial Funeral Home in Willis TX.
