“ Gwyn, Frances and Peggy,

I know there are no words to help with your grief but I do want you know how sorry I am and hope it helps to know that you all will be in my heartfelt thoughts and prayers.

Somehow, I think all the wonderful memories do help going forward.

Love,

Linda

“ Aren't we glad that God sent Tracy into all of our lives? He was such a wonderful person, I loved his sense of humor and I will never forget when I was young and got to visit his house. I hope that God will ease the family's sorrow because it is always hardest for the family that is left behind. He will be sorely missed and I know that he will never be forgotten. with love to all the family, Connie
