“ So many precious memories of our sweet Travis we have to hold on to. We all loved our beach trips, watching him play baseball, spending time at the deer lease, swimming, Travis loved to fish and didn't mind bragging on his catches, I took him to his first Astros game with Bobby, all the holidays, birthdays, and just seeing him grow up, he was always a good kid, then a good man. He married his love Ziry and had two beautiful babies Axton and Heidi. He loved them very much and all his family. He is named after my mother so they had a kindred spirit. I can't believe you are gone so fast and too soon. I just want to rewind time and keep you with us. I love you forever!! Our hearts are broken. Love always Aunt Belinda

You were my brother in law & watch me grow since I was 8-9yrs old. I will never forget the good times we had. Thank you for the advice and love. I promise to take care of my sister and watch over my niece and nephew. May you Rest In Peace 💙
