

Travis Wade Vaughan

September 27, 1989 - August 13, 2022

Travis Wade Vaughan, a resident of Huntsville, Texas, passed away unexpectedly on August 13, 2022 at the young age of thirty-two. He was born in Henderson, Texas on September 27, 1989 to Jeffery Vaughan and LaRhonda Beckworth.

During early childhood, you could find Travis wearing his cowboy boots, singing, and dancing. He reached milestones that exceeded the standards for his age. During his teen years he gained craftsman skills while working with his father Jeffery during the summer months and excelled academically in school. His intellectual curiosity helped him to grasp concepts and learn a new trade quickly. After becoming a Journeyman Electrician, he pursued a Master Electrician License and under the mentor ship of William Muirhead - Guaranteed Electric Co. where he completed the hours requirement and obtained his license at age thirty-one. His talents were endless, singing, dancing, and a virtuoso guitar player. His interest and hobbies, included spending time with his wife and son, playing guitar, and fishing. His smile was contagious, his kindness, and loving spirit always made him a joy to be around.

Travis is survived by his loving wife, Dalia Mejia Vaughan and son, Michael James
