“ You were such a wonderful person. I miss going to the Baron and having you fix my hair. Miss our conversations while you were working. You never gave up and I so admired your faith and spirit.

Jacque Bickel - November 22, 2007 at 11:32 AM

“ Its hard to imagine when we are young the twists that life gives us. Growing up together we never could see such a path. Days of simplicity dawned our early years. The world and I shall miss you my cuz. My prayers are with those closest to you.

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with you and the kids, Charlie. We know how hard it will be to go on without Tressa beside you. She will always be with each of you, and her memory will live on in all our hearts! Ashley you were lucky to have her for a Mom. I'm thinking of you now, and pray you and your brother will have an angel on your shoulder, helping you each day as time goes by. Love Always, Dean & Belle

“ I met Tressa many years ago (over 20+) when she worked at the Baron and she gave my daughter her first haircut. I still have that certificate & her bag of hair cuttings! Tressa was the most outgoing and always happy person I have ever met! She LOVED to talk when she was cutting your hair & she always asked about every member of your family because she cared about everyone! I cannot even begin to imagine the loss Charlie, the kids and her family will feel. She loved you all so much! I have lost a great friend but the community has lost a wonderful & caring angel! She is finally in eternal peace!

Love,
Jamie Brinegar & family
