Doyle was one of the best father figure men in my life. Such a good sweet man. He would give the last dollar out of his pocket to anyone that needed it.

*Diane, you were the love of his life. Everybody could see it by the look in yours and his eyes and smiles on your faces. I have so many precious memories of you two staying at my house when you came to Arkansas. Such good times. He will be missed by many but mostly by you , I do believe. My heart and prayers go out to you right now and many many days that follow. I want to thank you for loving and taking care of this great man we called Paw Doyle! Love always,
Sheila Hankins*
