

Ventura Delgado

July 14, 1922 - April 5, 2014

Ventura P. Delgado, 91, passed away March 30, 2014 of Huntsville, Texas. She was born July 14, 1922 in Jalisco, Mexico. Ventura was a loving mother of six, grandmother of 32 and great-grandmother of 50. Our grandmother lived a life that a lot of people only wished of living; not many people live to be 91 years old. Up until recently she still walked on her own, could hear very well, tried to cook even though we would not let her and most important to her, she was still trying to attend to her gardens, which she loved. Her gardens were her life and she had one at each one of her daughters' homes. Ventura loved God and served him with all her might. On March 21, 2014, our loving grandmother asked to speak with all her grandchildren to tell us to never stop going to church and to serve God the way she did. Her faith and love for God was great. Ventura was truly an admirable woman. Ventura is survived by her six children Amada Rogers, Lencha Vera, Maria Anzaldua, Juana Martinez, Gloria Lopez and J. Carmen Delgado. Ventura was preceded in death by her beloved husband Fransico Delgado and her grandchildren Veronica L. Anzaldua and Lee R. Anzaldua Jr. Family will receive friends on Friday, April 4, 2014 from 7:00 PM to 9:00 PM at Templo Cristo Rey, 409 9th Street, Huntsville, TX. Service will be held Saturday, April 5, 2014 from 11:00 AM to 2:00 PM at Templo Cristo Rey, 409 9th Street, Huntsville, TX, with interment to follow at Mayes Addition Cemetery in Huntsville, TX. Memorial condolences may be made to the family online at www.shmfh.com.

“ I'm sorry for the loss of your loved one. Y'all were truly blessed with her in y'all's lives just as she was blessed with all of y'all in hers. Find comfort in knowing she is now with our God. "Truly I tell you, today you will be with me in paradise." Luke 23:43
