“ Dear Family, I was shocked to hear of Virginia's passing. I was a friend of hers in high school and we enjoyed going to places with the Presbyterian Church Youth group like Mo Ranch. She is at peace now. My prayers are with you always.

“ To the family of Virgina Smith,

We're sorry for your loss. It's always hard to lose a mother, grandmother and daughter at such a young age. You've been in my prayers.

“ Coralee and family,

I was so sorry to hear about you losing another daughter. I didn't know Virginia as well as I knew Nancilee, but I'm sure she was a wonderful daughter. May God help you through these trying times.

“ Amber & Mark and littel Avery,
I am so sorry for the sudden loss of your Mom. God makes the plans and even though we may not alway like them - we must accept the fact that he knows what is best.

Please know that you will find strength in our Lord, Jesus Christ and he will sustain you in your time of need.

God Bless you and your family.
