“ Hey Bo, it's been a bit more then a month ever since we lost you, and there hasn't been a single day where I haven't thought of you. Thien Duc, Thien Phu, and Mom are doing ok, Bac Hai is taking care of us really well. We all really miss you and seeing you around the house. It feels very empty. I hope you're having fun in heaven, with Grandma and Grandpa. We love and miss you always, Bo.

Hôm qua còn thật rạng ngời đẹp tươi.
Hôm nay lá đã xa rời
Một cơn bão tố cuộc đời LÁ tan.
Kiếp nhân sinh lắm bể bàng
Người đi để lại bàng hoàng cho ai.
Niềm vui như gió thoảng bay
Vào trôi theo những tháng ngày hắt hiu !*

“ We were are saddened to hear of your brother's passing. Please know we share in your grief.

Our faith tells us that your brother has gone to his eternal rest. It should give us solace to know that he is at peace and will reap his just rewards for the good life that he lived.

The Bible says "Blessed are they that mourn for they will be comforted." I pray that God will bestow his choicest blessings on you and your wonderful family.

May God's grace and strength be with you. Words alone can not express enough our heartfelt sorrow at your loss. May the peace of God be with you during your time of sorrow. May it help to comfort you and your family that we deeply share your sorrow, and thinking of you, Fr. Daokim Nguyen and your family and praying for you.

May God Bless You.

“ As the days and weeks pass, and as you return to life's routine, may you continue to feel comforted by the love and support of family and friends. Proverbs 17:17 says, "A true friend shows love at all times. And is a brother who is born for times of distress" Grief can be so hard, but our special memories help us cope. Remembering a life well lived.
