“ Pauline and family: I know you do not know me or my family. But over the last 30 years I have heard so many wonderful stories of how Jeff was a wonderful brother in law to Emma and her family. . She looked up to him. My God bless you and your family during this time. I am truly sorry for your loss.

“ I forgot to tell you we were NOT there because we both had/have the FLU. God Bless again.

“ Pauline: Jeff's race is done and WON! We are sorry that we were not at the visitation or funeral to pay our respects and let you know what a special "Lady" we think you are! You kept right on doing and trying to do some of the things Jeff did while he was health-wise able and then you stepped in to keep things going. We're thinking about your years on the RWSC Board or at the helm of it. You certainly have shown others what LOVE is when it came to taking care of your loved one - oh so many years! God Bless You Pauline and family; and we KNOW HE will Bless you and will continue to walk with you until you are up there in Heaven beside Jeff again. Take care of yourself and know we care.

“ Our loss but Heaven's gain. With Mr. Jeff now in Heaven if there happens to be any building projects going on I am sure he is the first in line! What a God-given gift he had at fixing and building anything! What a God-given gift he had at making those of us who knew him feel special and loved. His love, his friendship, his generosity, his example of unselfishly serving others in need, his faithful love for his wife and son have left an impact upon the Hodges family. We will miss you for now Mr. Jeff but will meet you again someday in Heaven. Praise God!

“ Pauline, Jeff and family. Words cannot express my sorrow. Jeff was the head of our family for so long and we all depended on him for his knowledge and abilities. So many memories, so many things I wish I could change. Pauline, God blessed you with a husband that truly loved you. I am so happy you had Jeff for the years you shared together. I know Mom and Dad welcomed him into Heaven and hugged their only son. Rest in peace, my brother.
