We will treasure the times that we were with Wanda throughout the years. We are so thankful that she was a Christian and was faithful in God's service. Praise God, we will be together again one day - forever.*

Our love and prayers are with all the family at this time. Thanks to Wanda's wonderful daughters for the love and care given by them to her. God bless and keep each one of you.

“ Regina,

My thoughts and prayers are with you at this difficult time. While you and your family will miss Mom daily, knowing that she is resting in Christ's loving arms with no more pain or suffering will surely be a comfort. Your mom fought the good fight. She was a testament to His grace and comfort.

Peace and Blessings to you and your family.

“ Regina, I know how difficult this has been for you. You are in my thoughts and prayers. You know they are ill and you want peace for them, but selfishly it is hard to let go. She is lucky to have you for a daughter.

“ I have such fond memories of Wanda even back to our grade school days as being such a sweet, friendly, kind-spirited person. She never changed. It was such a joy to get to visit with her at our class reunions. Wanda was so strong in her belief in God and a wonderful witness for His love. We know that she is now in God's care with heavenly peace and freedom from pain and suffering. To her daughters and other family members may precious memories give you strength in your grief.

“ I am so sorry to learn of the death of Wanda. A wonderful classmate. In my opinion she was what our class motto was, "Hard as diamonds, twice as fine the class of 1959. She fit this motto by her courage and smile every time that you as with her. I never did see her that she was and laughing and smiling. The world would be a better place to live in if there was a lot more people like her.

“ I couldn't help but think how fitting it was that on the day we celebrate the birth of our Lord, heaven celebrated the birth of an angel, our friend and classmate, Wanda. She suffers no more. We will miss her presence on earth, but will always have her in our hearts.

“ Wanda was so grateful to God to live long enough to attend the 50th Reunion of the LHS Class of 1959. She wanted to see her classmates one last time and she got her wish. We were all blessed to spend time with her at the reunion. We will miss her. She was a faithful Livingston High School Alumni. She is gone but not forgotten.

"Hard as diamonds, twice as fine, we're the Class of 59".

“ Regina:
Everyone in the Fort Bend District has you and your family in our prayers and thoughts. I know how long you have been going through the agony of not knowing when this would happen. Rest assured that she is in God's hands now and in a much better place. No more suffering and pain and you can have peace of mind knowing that.
