

Waylon Dale May

June 16, 2005 - May 5, 2019

Waylon "Tractor" May passed away May 5, 2019 surrounded by his family. Waylon May was born to Ronnie and Cindy May, June 16, 2005 in Tomball, TX. Waylon has resided in Montgomery his entire life. Waylon passed away from a battle with metastatic osteosarcoma. Waylon was born with a fishing rod in his hand. His love for hunting and fishing began at an early age along with his love for singing in his school choir and football at age 6. In little league football he earned the name "Tractor" by plowing through his opponents. Waylon didn't know a stranger and could make anyone laugh with his wittiness.

Waylon dreamed of working along side one of his brothers one day and having a family of his own with his fur babies. He was an old soul and knowledgeable beyond his years, but with a heart of a child.

Waylon is survived by his Father, Ronnie May; Mother, Cindy May; Brother and Sister-in-law, Dillon Dowdell and Rylei Williamson; Brother, Wes May; Sister, Kim Bailey; Grandparents, James and Donna Dowdell.
