“ *Mrs. Komar, Jason, Patrick, Anton, and Ms. Princess Parker.
I wanted to express my deepest sorrows for your loss of husband, father and grandfather. Mrs. Komar you should be so proud to have held the love of one man for 54 yrs. That in itself is a miracle. Your son has touched my heart over the years of knowing him and his wonderful family. When Jason told me of Mr. Komars illness, you became part of my family extending thru prayers from my mother and her church St Annes in Tomball. I can only tell you that I know Mr. Komar is resting peacefully and will continue to live thru the lives of his children and grandchildren. You and your family will continue to stay in my prayers. God Bless you and love you.
Sincerely, Kelly Vela*

“ Dear Dorothy, Jason, and all the family--
When I learned of Harris' situation, my prayers were that he would not have to suffer long if there was no hope. From the few details I have heard, my prayers were answered. He was an older cousin I admired from as long ago as I can remember, and I would like to have been closer in more recent years.
I know our mother loved him a lot. She often mentioned his name or one of his siblings.
We won't be able to be there, but our hearts are with the family.
Knowing where he is now, may your burden be light.
With love, David

“ Jason, We are sorry about the loss of your father. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. There is an old saying that says that Death is not the extinguishing of a light leaving darkness, but rather the blowing out of a candle because the sun has risen. We hope that you might find some comfort and peace. God Bless You. Richard and Tamera
