“ I met Al in 1986 when we both worked at Birra Porretti's (Greenspoint!). I was just a young kid, but Al was a great friend. He was so supportive of my pursuit of a theatre career, sent me encouraging cards while I was in college, and came to Huntsville to see my shows. I graduated, got older, and we didn't keep in touch as much. Eventually I moved to Chicago. I am so glad that I got to see Al a couple of years ago for one more Italian dinner. I've never met anyone else with as big of a heart and sincere love for his fellow man. I am sorry to hear of Al's passing, and will miss him. My condolences.

“ The fact that I met Al because he would faithfully come to support our mutual friends' live music says what a good friend he was to so many people. I will not forget his kindness as he took an ACTIVE interest in my own well-being, as he did for all of us. That's what makes the world go 'round. I never heard an unkind word from Al toward anyone.

You're a tough act to follow, friend. Miss you.

“Doug and I met Al about 5 years ago and enjoyed great rock music together. We play trivia regularly at Mike's Place near one of his stores. He would stop in and give us a helping hand. We made top 10 in the country several times. Always enjoyed his hugs, just like a big teddy bear. I will miss them and his warm heart.

“We were all the best friends for so long. Mark and Al met and worked together at Digital Computers. The job didn't last for either of them but the friendship sure did. We had some great times before Al moved to Texas. We did loose touch for a while but as soon as email became a part of life we were back in touch. Our condolences to Mary, and all of Al's family and friends. We will miss you and love you.

“Al was always a very good hearted and happy person since I've known him. He use to manage the Molly's Pub where he became great friends with my husband Keith who played drums in Blowtorch Repair and he was very close to the other members in the band, Richard and Steve as well. I guess they had all became friends at least 15 to 18 years ago maybe longer. He will be sadly missed at those gigs for he was always a lot of fun. God Bless You our Friend.

“ I have just been informed of this site by Al's first wife, Lucille, who emailed me and others when she was worried about not hearing from our great friend, Al, and was told of this site by someone else. I am glad to be able to express thoughts here, in addition to the card Richard and I sent to you, since many of us have been unable to properly salute someone we all cared so much for. Al was such a fun, generous, loving, good guy. I am already missing him terribly and will continue to do so.
