

William "Will" Bius

August 22, 2008

William Jackson Bius, the beloved son of Ben and Janet Bius went to be with the Lord on August 17, 2008. William and his brother, Thomas Daniel Bius, were very close and shared a deep affection for each other and their family. William came into this world and was baptized on April 3, 1989. He was a sweet and loving child who dearly loved his home and family. William was enrolled at Sam Houston State University and was looking forward to his future as a businessman, like his father. William was a Christian and a confirmed member of Faith Lutheran Church. He graduated Huntsville High School in 2007. William is survived by his father Ben Bius, mother Janet Bius, brother Thomas Daniel Bius, grandfather Tom Bius and his wife Susana, grandmother Mary Borgfeld, his uncles, Tom Bius, Jr., David Wesley Horton and his wife Brenda, his aunts Carol Bius, Mary Owens, Diane Holmgren and husband Brian. He had 11 beloved cousins. William loved much and many and was loved much by many. William had a great and varied life. William was a hard worker and was proud to be working in the family business. He was very fond of his co-worker David Rivas a loyal and trusted friend of the family. Last year William went on a mission trip into the Copper Canyon of Mexico. He helped build a home for the pastor in a very remote village. There he exhibited great leadership and humanitarian skills. He was an accomplished horseman, hunter and loved football and basketball. He enjoyed golf with his father, grandfather, friends and as a member of the Huntsville High School golf team. William had met presidents, senators, governors and many people of distinction. William had a great and varied life. William`s humor, bright smile and genuine love will be missed by all who knew him. William could not understand and was deeply hurt by the sin in the world. He was a Christian and knew that the Lord Jesus Christ was our savior and only hope. William greatly underestimated the evil that exists all around us. While the evil one took his life the Lord has conquered sin and death and William Jackson Bius is now surely with the Lord, Jesus Christ, where he has found eternal peace. Services will be held Friday August 22, 2008 at 10 AM at Faith Lutheran Church with interment to follow at the Family Cemetery under the direction of Sam Houston Memorial Funeral Home. The family will receive friends from 5:30 to 7:30 PM Thursday August 21, 2008 at the funeral home. Memorials may be made to the "William Jackson Bius Memorial Fund #153-060" in care of American Bank - P.O. Box 1779 - Huntsville, TX 77342-11779. Those wishing to leave condolences for the family may do so at www.shmfh.com.

“ Dear Janet, Ben and Daniel, We cherish so many happy memories of Will as a young boy, so much joy watching He and Daniel, Conor and Brendan, Michael and Matt Farris having so much fun together..those are always the most precious of times...those days of innocence and laughter. During this time of your most unimaginable sorrow, we will hold your darling Will and the memories of those magical days so close in our hearts. He gave us all the summertime of his life. You loved him well for 19 precious, precious years. His spirit lives on, as love never dies.

“ Kirk, Ashley, and I were sorry to hear of your loss. It is unfortunately a familiar kind of pain as a similar thing happened to my own brother over twenty years ago when he was just 19. Always remember to stay strong, keep Daniel close, and keep moving forward though it may be difficult. Will was loved by many and you have all the support we can offer. Our prayers are with you all.

“ Human words or actions can not express the sorrow we feel for your family in the loss of your loved one, Will. The Bible gives us comfort and peace in the Gospel of St. John chapter 11:25, telling us "I am the Resurrection and the Life, Whoever believes in Me, though he die, yet shall live". One of my favorite Bible verses, St. John 14:1-4 assures us, "Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in Me. In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that were I am, there ye may be also. And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know."

Our most heartfelt sympathy is extended to your family.
