“ To My Uncle Bill....your death has hit me very hard and the only comfort I have is knowing my dad (Terry Leroy Boyt) was there to greet you with open arms. I am sure the two of you have taken yourselves back to the good ole days and giggle just thinking of what you two put Aunt Pat through when you were boys. I love you Uncle Bill...you will forever have a very special place in my heart.

“ Oh my goodness, Krystyna, I just found out last night about Billy. I am so sorry. Billy was such a great, funny guy and loved you so much. Hopefully, his passing will help those of us who knew him take a good look at our own demons more seriously and deal with them better way. My heart goes out to you. Love and prayers, Renee

“ *Krystina: I'm sorry to hear of your loss. Looking back, I'm almost sorry that I sold the pub to you guys. Not that I miss it all that much, just that I never thought that Billy would have developed the Ronnie Hudson disease. Good luck to you and hang in there. P.S. I still refer to it as The Bunker!!! “ I worked with Bill and I want you to know how much I enjoyed working with him. He will be missed. He was so funny and he had nothing but kind words to say. I know that he loved his family tremendously just by the way his face would light up when he talked about them. Please accept my sincerest condolences and I pray that the Lord will wrap his friends and family in His loving arms to bring comfort to all.

“ Krystina:

I'm sorry I could not make it today because of my cold. Even though I know that Janice will tell you, I wanted to do this also. Also, Jim Stinson and his wife Karen send their condolences.
