“ Dear Lundquist Family,

I was truly shocked and saddened at the news of Billy's passing. I grew up playing sports with Billy since 3rd grade and though I didn't stay in constant contact with him after high school, I will always have great memories of his smile, and the charisma and charm he had. He really did lift others and bring a smile to their faces and his enthusiasm for whatever he was doing at the time was infectious to everyone around him.

Billy will live in all of our hearts forever. Our hearts, thoughts and prayers are with you and your extended family during this time.

Billy, if you're listening know that we are thinking of you and you are loved by so many! Rest well, partner!

“ Billy was my neighbor here in Phoenix and I took care of his house and property and maintained his yard. He was out of town a lot and I would watch over his place. We talked sports almost every day and he was always so cheerful. I looked forward to seeing him and was so hurt to hear of his passing. He was so full of life. I know that heaven's gate opened wide for him.

“ Dear Lundquist Family,
I would like to express my sincere condolences on the loss of your dear loved one Billy. Although I never knew him personally, death is something that touches all of us. It can leave deep wounds that never seem to heal. But our loving Heavenly Father has not left us without hope. He cares so deeply for you and understands, more than anyone here on earth, your pain and the complex emotions that Billy's passing has brought you. (1 Peter 5:7) He has already made provisions, by means of His son Jesus Christ, to reunite us with our dead loved ones by means of a resurrection on a paradise earth that will be filled with peace, happiness, and where everyone there will enjoy perfect health. (John 5:28,29; Psalms 37:9-11,29; Isaiah 33:24) God will also eradicate death forever and along with it any painful memories that may plague us. (Isaiah 25:8; Isaiah 65:17) This hope from our Heavenly Father is absolutely trustworthy because it is impossible for Him to lie. (Hebrews 6:18) It is my fervent prayer that these Bible promises help to make your present pain a little easier to bear in the days to come. My deepest sympathy to you.

“ Dear Sweet Lundquist Family...it's tough to find words that feel adequate enough when people you know and love have lost someone they love. Billy wasn't just another person walking around breathing air...he lived his life. He loved his family and he always gave back..sometimes just with making us laugh. Billy will live on forever and forever as you share your stories and remember how much joy he gave you and all of us. God is close to the broken hearted...I love you all deeply. Kristin
