“ It is still hard to imagine that you are gone, and I hope you took with you all the fun times we all had shared at my parents house in Carmel, when you and Fran would spend the weekends with us and all the countless times that you screamed "GUMBY" looking for me at your house that I spent so many fun and wonderful times on the weekend together with you and my beautiful cousin Fran and the kids. You are so missed Will"um" You are always in my thoughts and my prayers and that one day we will all be together. MERRY CHRISTMAS in Heaven my dear cousin. I MISS and LOVE you!!!

“ Dear Fran,

We are so sorry for your loss.

"Willy" will be deeply missed.

Words can not convey what he meant to all of us, and we will never forget him.

May God help you through this sorrowful time, and may you find comfort in sharing the happy memories we all have of him.

*With our Deepest Sympathy,
AB, Carol and Lauren*

“ I knew "locksmith Bill" for many years. He always was so proud of his son, Wayne. On many occasions he would proudly show me photos of him deployed overseas, and tell me stories of his adventures. I knew Bill through his business and he was truly "one of a kind".
