A tribute from Trevor:

Wilson Terry Shotwell was born in 1947. As a young man he found his passion for building things like cannons and machines. As the years went by he worked for company after company until he made his own company. Years went by and his father Willie Shotwell passed away a few years after that his mother Willie Mae Shotwell passed away. About five years later he started shaking very bad this went on for about ten to fifteen years. The one day he choked and lost a lot of air and about a month later he passed away. Also he was married to Sarah Cooper and had three sons Troy, Thomas, and Trent, and me and my siblings were his grandkids Trevor, Tim, and Everly.

“ I was sad to hear about Terry's passing. I know Sarah, his boys and grandchildren miss him already. My name is Bonny Smith and I am Terry's 1st cousin. We all grew up in the same area and on the same small road. Went to the same schools and played together. My Daddy, Mannie Thomas Smith was Terry's Mother, Aunt Willie Mae's brother. We were a close family unit growing up. Aunts, Uncles and cousin's all around. We were all within 'hollering distance' and only Aunt Minnie had a telephone. We played in the woods behind our homes or played in the gully and of course we were all barefoot. Many of us are no longer here but we grew up as one BIG family. I am sorry Terry was ill and do not take it lightly, how much you will miss him but, Praise God, Terry is no longer in pain. Love to all.
