

Zelda Mae Johnson

May 5, 2011

Zelda Mae Mack Johnson, 78, passed away peacefully after a courageous struggle with cancer in Montgomery (Bentwater) Texas. She is survived by her loving husband Norman Johnson, her devoted children David Johnson, Gary Johnson and Jan Gann, and her son-in-law Jeff Gann, as well as her brother, Herbert Laney Mack, her sister-in-law Rose Mack, and her nieces and nephews Betsy Boeckman, Carol Cook, Pat Smith, Jill Jarreau, Mitzi Dinicola and Lane Mack. Born in DeQuincy, Louisiana to Herbert and Mae Mack, she attended elementary and high school there and later McNeese State University in Lake Charles, LA. She was a member of the Baptist Church, and married the love of her life, Norman, who shared the same birthday, at age 21. They chose to be married on their common birthday and were active life companions for 57 years. Later in life, she and Norman decided to move to the Bentwater community on Lake Conroe, where she was very involved and lived until her death. She had many dear friends there and became a member of the Red Hat Society, or "ladies who lunch". She also enjoyed many summers in Durango, Colorado where she entertained friends, some of whom were from the Bentwater community, played golf, and simply enjoyed the cooler Colorado climate and brilliant sunshine. At the end of her life, she was attended by two of her loving nieces, Jill Jarreau and Mitzi Dinicola, who did everything possible to make her transition an easy one. A very special thanks goes out to both of them. Her Celebration of Life Memorial Service will be held at North Shore Church (Bentwater)Montgomery, Texas on Thursday, May 5th at 10:00 a.m. and followed by a reception at the Bentwater Yacht Club.

Visitation will be held on Wednesday, May 4th from 6-8 p.m. in the Chapel of Sam Houston Memorial Funeral Home, Montgomery, Texas. You are invited to leave memorial condolences to the family at website www.shmfh.com “ Gary, you and your family are in our thoughts and prayers. May God comfort you as only He can, and give you His peace. We pray you can cherish the wonderful memories and know how much she loved you. She is in a better place with no pain or tears...and someday we will all be together again. I'm pretty sure Mom and Dad greeted her and are sharing stories of us wayward sons. Love ya.

“ To Mr. Johnson, Jan, Gary, David, et al, we are so sorry for your loss. Your family has been so important to us over the years, and we love and miss you all. Jan, I still say "give Mother a little time!" I still crack up at that memory. Blessings to you all.

“ Norman, David, Gary, Jan and Jeff - Our sincere sympathy and prayers. We are so sorry for your loss. And sorry that we cannot be at either the visitation or the service. I'm working tonight, and tomorrow morning Walter is leaving for OH to check on his frail 96 year old mother, who has had numerous problems recently. Our thoughts are with all of you.

“ To Mr. Johnson, Jan, and the rest of the family: Some of my fondest childhood memories involve all of you. Please know that you are all in my thoughts and prayers. Mrs. Johnson was, and will always be, one of my favorite people in the world. I never see a BBQ crab that doesn't remind me of her, and have never tasted a shrimp creole so sweet as hers. I thank the heavens for having the opportunity to know a lady as wonderful as she was. Love to you all.
